

rent. Many theatre troupes stayed at the McMullin House when they played Heber. Mrs. McMullin was a good housekeeper, and many young girls of the community who worked for her were taught the principles of good homemaking and cooking in addition to earning their salary. The Ashton Hardware store now stands where the old McMullin House was located.

The Heber City business district, as it appeared in 1916 is shown in this photograph looking south from First North Street. Businesses shown are the Heber Confectionary and Bakery, barber shop, pool hall, Buell's general merchandise store, Mark Jeff's store, Simon Epperson's Livery Stable and Turner's Store.

Heber's main hotel for many years, the Duncan House, was built in the Spring and Summer of 1885 and opened for business in August of that year. It was owned by John Duncan and his wife, with Mrs. Duncan serving as general manager.

At the time it opened, the Duncan House boasted eight bedrooms, office, sitting room, dining room and kitchen. A few years later the hotel was expanded to a rock building just south of the hotel, a 15 by 36 foot kitchen was added and then later a frame cottage was built with more rooms.

Mrs. Duncan managed the hotel until her death in 1900, when Mr. Duncan and his daughter took over the management. The daughter, Gertrude, married E. H. Rhead, Jr., and on Dec. 1, 1904, Mr. and Mrs. Rhead leased the hotel from Mr. Duncan and began operating it. They made further expansions during 1905, improving the previous additions and adding another seven rooms, storerooms and linen closet. The building was subsequently torn down and the Turner Motel and Cafe now occupies the site.
